Cardinal catcher has now developed somewhat and will meet Tom Corbett tonight in a special match.

Whether pin boys could be secured sufficiently bold to serve at the bowling match scheduled for to-night between Tom Corbett and Catcher Jack McLean was a question which gave some trouble to the manager of a North Side alley yesterday.

McLean has recently acquired at taste for bowling and has declared his intention of becoming a champion. Inasmuch as his efforts on his first night came near causing a dearth of boys in the neighborhood of Grand avenue and Hebert street some timidity existed among the youngsters as regarded serving a second time. After Eddie Boyle had finished a 70 game at Bader's alleys. McLean doffed his coat, folded a dozen lignum vitaes in his arms and went to work.

McLean had an idea of his own as to how the bowling game was to be played. Grabbing the balls he tossed them at the pins in the fashion he is wont to throw to second hase. Marquise Des Monstiers Merinville Gives Up the Catholic Church.

New York, Nov. 15.-The Associated Press has received the following. Before giving it publication its authenticity has been fully verified by cable from Rome:

"Rome, Oct. 30, 1904.-Editor of the Associated Presa; You have my full permission to print the inclosed and give it as wide a publication as possible. Yours truly.

"MARQUISE DE MONSTIERS." "Dear Editor: It may interest some of your readers to know that the Marquise des Monstiers Merinville, formerly Miss M. G Caldwell, who, it will be remembered, founded the Roman Catholic University at Washington some years ago, has entirely repudiated her former creed. In an interview with me the other day she said:

"'Yes, it is true that I have left the Roman Catholic Church, Since I have been living in Europe my eyes have been opened to what that church really is and to its anything but sanctity. But the trouble goes much further back than this. Being naturally religious, my imagination was early caught by the idea of doing something to lift the church from the William Deggerhardt, three one-story brick dwellings. Nos. 159-21 John; $5,000.

lowly position which it occupied in America, so I thought of a university or higher school, where its clergy could be educated and if possible refined.

"Of course, in this I was greatly influenced by Bishop Spaiding of Peoria, who represented it to me as one of the greatest works of the day. When I was it I turned over to them one-third of my fortune for that purpose.

"But for years I have been trying to rid myself of the subtle yet overwhelming influence of a caurch which pretends not only to the privilege of being "the cmy true church," but of being aione able to open the gates of heaven to a sorrowful, sinful world. At last my honest Protestant blood has asserted itself, and I now forever repudiate and cast off "the yoke of Rome." So saying, the Marquise politicy dismissed me.

"It will be remembered that the Marquise des Monstiers Merinville and her gister, the Baroness von Zeedwitz, are the daughters of the late William S. Caldwell and his wife, who was a Breckinriage of Kentucky. Shortly before his death Mr. Caldwell became a convert to Roman Catholicism, and left his children to the care of Irish Roman Catholics in New York, whom his wife had met in church circles. The younger sister married some fifteen years ago a German nobleman, a Lutheran, and has since then, also, left the Roman Catholic communion. The elder has been in very bad health for some years from having to occupy a position before the world as a prominent Roman Catholic which was not a real one, and one into which her extreme generosity led her, as a young and inexperienced girl. Now at last her own mind has asserted itself, and she returns to the creed of her ancestors." quise des Monstiers Merinville and her sis-

HAD BUSINESS I.. ST. LOUIS.

Mary Gwendolin Caldwell is the daughter of William Shakerspeare Caldwell, who after being a theatrical manager in England, settled in Richmond, Va., and eventually made a large fortune in building gas houses in Chicago, St. Louis, Mobile and other cities. He married Miss Breckinridge, a famous Kentucky beauty. Miss Caldwell and her sister, Lina, spent the summers at Newport, where they had a magnificent house, and usually passed part of the winter, when they were not abroad, in New York, On the death of her father, Miss Caldwell inherited $2.000,000, and October 19, 1886, Miss Caldwell was married to the Marquis des Monstiers Merinville, a French nobleman, in St. Joseph's Chürch, Avenue Hoche, Parls, by Bishop Spalding of Peoria, Ill., the guardian and administrator of the estate of Mise Caldwell, assisted by Father Cook.

At the time of her marriage Miss Cald-HAD BUSINESS I., ST. LOUIS, well was a very handsome woman about 35 years old, and a devoted Roman Catholic. She had previously shown her devotion to the church by giving $300.00 to found the Divinity College of the Roman Catholic University in Washington.

Seven years previous to her marriage Miss Caldwell was engaged to Prince Murat, grandson of the King of Naples. The engagement was broken because the Prince insisted that half of Miss Caldwell's fortune should be settled on him.

Miss Lina Caldwell married Baron von Zeedwitz, who was killed on his yacht August 18, 1895, while taking part in the yacht races of the Albert regatta at Southsea England, as the result of a collision with Emperor William's yacht, Meteor. The Baron was struck on the head by a block or a piece of the broken mast of his yacht and was unconscious when picked up, dying soon after.

Little was known of the Marquis des Monstiers Merinville at the time of his marriage to Miss Caldwell, with the exception of the fact that he was chronicled in the "Annuaire de Noblesse" as dating his title from 1754, the rank of Count having been given his ancestors in 1756.

The Divinity College of the Roman Catholic University in Washington is known as the Mary Gwendolin Caldwell Hall of Divinity.

In fact, they were loath to believe she had formed such a determination. At the university itself the statement would not be accepted as true, but in order to satisfy himself on the subject. Rector O'Connell to-night cabled Rome for information. Bishop Spalding of Peoria is in this city to attend a meeting of the trustees of the university. When asked to-night if he could assign any reason for the Marquise des Monscier's action, he answered that he could not; that he knew her only as a good Catholic, and until the announcement was made to-day had given no thought otherwise.

"It is all a mystery to me," he said.

Contagious Blood Poiso", sometimes known as "THE BAD DISEASE," begins usually with a little pimple

or sore, and this may be the only external evidence for several weeks; but soon the glands in the neck and groins swell, pimples and red eruptions break out on the breast and other parts of the body, the mouth and throat get sore, the tongue heavily coated, the hair falls out, and as the contamination more thoroughly saturates the system, copper-colored spots and other severe symptoms make their appearance. Too often the sufferer turns to the Mercury and Potash treatment and smothers and hides the disease in the system, and when they are left off he finds that this masking of the disease has concentrated its strength, and it breaks forth again with consuming intensity. Mercury and Potash not only fail to cure Blood Poison, but produce other severe troubles such as Mercurial Rheumatism, necrosis of the bones and inflammation of the Stomach and

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 15.-The sixteenth annual convention of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners began to-day with a large attendance. The annual address was delivered by President John V. Smith of Montgomery, President John V. Smith in his annual President John V. Smith in his annual address took strong grounds against the government ownership of railroads, saying that a political party with the patronage afforded by the railroads and the appointment of over a million employes could not only perpetuate itself in power, but in a few years could build a monarchy, and our now boasted free institutions would become the laughing stock of nations. Government supervision reasonably and justly administered and not government ownership, he said, was to his mind the solution of the problem of railroad cembinations.

"Let the railroads combine," the speaker continued, "and combine until every mile is under one vast system, and I have sufficient confidence in our Government to believe that under proper supervision these combinations could be made a blessing instead of a curse to our nation."

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

"But soon after I began to take Wine of Cardui I could see that I was beginning to get back my strength." That is the comment Mrs. Seymour makes. If you are sick you can take Wine of Cardui and secure health and strength. If other medicines and other treatment have failed, that will make no difference. Few women have taken Wine of Cardui at first. By far the greater number of Wine of Cardui cures are women who could not secure relief elsewhere. Women who take Wine of Cardui at first have very little to tell of suffering. There is nothing to tell because Wine of Cardui cures them quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui. Nearly all women need also a 25c. package of Thedford's Black Draught.

WINE OF CARDUI

No. 48 Straight St., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

I am pleased to endorse Wine of Cardui as I found it so beneficial to restore my strength after my baby was born. I could not seem to get well enough to be up and able to do my work, and as I had been in bed for six weeks this was rather serious, but soon after I began to use Wine of Cardui I could see that I was beginning to get back my strength. In another week I was able to sit up most of the day and in a month I was able to be up and do most of my work. I think it is splendid medicine for a woman and can certainly give it Orra. On.
